MARQUETTE-ALGER RESA CLASSROOMS

Transition Services provide support for students and their families in making the leap from post-school supports to adult agencies. The program consists of three classrooms that run parallel to the public school year. The program is designed to help young adults with disabilities learn skills to increase independence in the areas of employability, community involvement, and independent or adult daily living skills.

☐ Transition IB

Location: St. Michael's at 401 W Kaye Ave in Marquette
Students: Young adults aged 19 to 26

☐ Transition IA

Location: St. Michael's at 401 W Kaye Ave in Marquette
Students: Young adults aged 19 to 26

☐ Transition II

Location: St. Michael's at 401 W Kaye Ave in Marquette
Students: Young adults aged 19 to 26

One residential classroom is operated by Marquette-Alger RESA and provides services to students with unique challenges. Students, from across the state, placed in Great Lakes Recovery Center are able to continue with their academic coursework while undergoing treatment for substance abuse addiction. The goal is to ensure a smooth academic transition back into their school of residence.

☐ Great Lakes Recovery Center Classroom

Located in the GLRC Youth Services building on 104 Malton Road in Negaunee. Students are from 7th to 12th grade. One classroom teacher and one GLRC staff member support this program.
